ABOUT YOUR PHOTOGRAPHER

HI! IT'S ME, LEXIE.

I am an entrepreneur, a mom, a soon-to-be wife, a friend, and just a normal woman trying to build her empire. While it may not seem that way, I don't always believe in myself. I have insecurities, just like you. It's difficult for me to stop and take time for myself. I have not always prioritized myself, but when I finally started a few years ago, it changed my life. I started on a journey of self-discovery and self-acceptance and completely changed my focus to boudoir.

I have learned that boudoir is an incredible tool on your self-acceptance journey. Emotive imagery is my way to show you that side of you that has been buried. That version of you that you have been hiding because life can be cruel. You are AMAZING, GORGEOUS, CONFIDENT, BEAUTIFUL, DESERVING, and MORE THAN ENOUGH! (You may not know it yet and that's ok. We will change that together.)

This experience allows you to remember what you are... because you truly are perfect.
